

Mr. Qaisar Mehmood serves as Deputy Director, Publication and Reproduction at the Executive Development Institute (EDI). His role encompasses a diverse range of responsibilities, including inter departmental coordination, event setup and communication with other public and private departments to manage financial and logistical aspects related to training participants.

Prior to his current role, Mr. Mehmood has worked in various capacities across different departments of NSPP, showcasing his dedication and versatility in administrative and logistics functions.