

Executive Development Institute National School of Public Policy

Public Financial Management Training Workshop-VIII

22nd & 23rd July, 2026

Executive Development Institute of the National School of Public Policy is offering a Two Days' in-person Training Course on Public Financial Management scheduled to be held on July 22-23, 2026. Public Financial Management remains an intricate and complex domain involving policy, governance, implementation and progress on fiscal issues that are the cornerstone of planning and execution.

Keeping this in view, EDI has developed the eight courses on Public Financial Management in consultation with financial experts to cater to the crosscutting demands of public sector, corporate, academic, social sector organizations, and civil society in dealing with issues that relate to public finance in their daily professional working. Previous training workshops on Public Financial Management featured eminent speakers, including former Governor of the State Bank, former Federal Minister of Finance, former Federal Secretaries and distinguished professors from top-tier universities.

Learning Outcomes

- Understand strategic foundations and reform trajectories in public financial management.
- Master core competencies in budgeting, accounting, auditing, and fiscal literacy.
